Amber Werchon property is proud to present 959 Cooloolabin Road, a beautifully presented residence boasting both the serenity of the countryside and the convenience of being a mere 10 minutes from Yandina. Nestled amidst the tranquil surrounds of Cooloolabin, this charming four-bedroom acreage offers an idyllic semi-rural lifestyle, perfect for families seeking space, comfort, and a touch of luxury.

This delightful property spans across 1 hectare, providing an expansive backdrop for a beautifully appointed home. The abode features a thoughtful layout including a master bedroom with a walk-in robe and an ensuite, ensuring a private retreat for the heads of the household. Three additional well-sized bedrooms and a dedicated study room offer ample space for family living.

The heart of the home is the kitchen, complete with a large cooker and sophisticated granite stone benchtops. It overlooks a cosy family room, complete with a fire for those cooler Queensland evenings. A separate living room and dining room provide further areas for entertainment and family gatherings.

Outdoor living is a dream with an undercover patio and a magnificent pergola with a retractable cover, perfect for al fresco dining and relaxation. Complementing this space is a large wood fire pizza oven, sure to be the centrepiece for many memorable feasts.

The grounds are a true oasis, featuring beautiful gardens with a variety of fruit trees, a pool accompanied by a spa, and a large powered shed for all your storage and hobby needs. The convenience of a double carport rounds off the impressive list of features.

Just a short drive from Yandina, this property balances seclusion with the convenience of nearby shops and schools. The Sunshine Coast beaches are within a 30min drive giving you the perfect connection between coast and hinterland.

With a picturesque setting close to Cooloolabin Dam, this property is a haven of peace and natural beauty. It's more than a home; it's a lifestyle awaiting its next family to cherish.
