Discover the charm of country living at this new boutique country development, offering private, level serviced small acreage plots in the sought-after town of Bannockburn. Situated within close proximity to the town center and tucked away from the main road, these parcels provide peace, quiet, and an authentic taste of country life. Designing a home surrounded by established trees sounds like a dream! Incorporating the natural beauty of the environment into the design would create a serene and peaceful atmosphere. Picture floor-to-ceiling windows or a spacious outdoor deck where you can enjoy the lush greenery and chirping birds while sipping your morning coffee. The design could emphasize open spaces and natural materials to complement the countryside vibe.
