

Address available on request, Burnie, Tas 7320

Sold House

Tuesday, 15 August 2023

Address available on request, Burnie, Tas 7320

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 566 m2

Type: House

Peter Bull

$755,000

Forget the car-inner city living at its best -just an easy walk into Burnies CBD, cafes, restaurants, bars, shopping and beach plus spectacular ocean views. This exquisite home combines luxury and convenience, offering an unparalleled living experience. Located in a secluded position on a no through street, this stunning property has a distinct sense of grandeur with its extensive use of double glazed windows to fully appreciate the incredible views. The open plan living area seamlessly integrates a beautiful kitchen, perfect for entertaining family and friends. The kitchen/living area effortlessly flows onto a sensational deck, where you can savour the expansive sea views, city skyline, watch the surf carnivals, the fishings boats and the ships coming and going in the port. The deck wraps around the home, offering multiple spaces to bask in the sun, particularly in the morning when it bathes the living areas in its warm glow. This carefully planned home not only makes the most of the view and makes entertaining a pleasure, it also it allows for easy everyday living, with the bedrooms and living areas separated perfectly for just the right amount of privacy. With the main bedroom on the top level (entry level), carefully designed for comfort and elegance and with a large walk-in-robe. Also you'll find a bathroom with a separate loo for guests. Downstairs, Bedrooms 2 and 3 provide ample space for relaxation, while another well-appointed bathroom ensures convenience for all. A cosy sitting room offers a versatile 2nd living space to unwind. Luxury extends throughout every aspect of this remarkable home. The bathrooms feature heated floors, adding an extra touch of comfort and indulgence. A garage and an additional off-street car park provide secure parking for your vehicles. The lovely, sunny courtyard offers an alternative ideal space for entertaining friends and family. This property goes above and beyond, offering a workshop beneath the garage for those who enjoy tinkering or need a dedicated space for their hobbies or storage. There's also a large amount of securely locked dry storage space. Additionally, the backyard features established raised veggie gardens, allowing you to cultivate your own fresh produce. Leave the car at home and embrace a convenient lifestyle where you can stroll to work in the CBD, with its array of shops, cafes, and restaurants. Enjoy the luxury of living in your own private sanctuary while being just a stone's throw away from the city centre. This luxurious home presents a rare opportunity to own a stunning property with breath taking views and unmatched convenience. Contact us today to arrange a private inspection. While we use all reasonable endeavours to verify the information contained herein, we cannot guarantee that it is entirely accurate. The information provided is obtained through various sources, all of which we consider to be reliable however given the nature of 'buyer beware' in Tasmania, it is recommended that prospective purchasers conduct their own investigations in addition to information provided to them by the agency.