Situated in rural splendour between Bowral and Moss Vale and just five minutes' drive to both, 'Bantry' is a breathtaking estate that offers a truly luxurious Highlands' lifestyle. On almost twelve acres, this gracious, light-filled weatherboard homestead with wrap-around verandas is surrounded by stunning formal gardens. A divine guest cottage is privately sited adjacent to a walled kitchen garden with several water features; extensive equestrian facilities are housed in a delightful stables complex. Stroll to the famed Briars Country Lodge for an upmarket pub experience or exquisite restaurant dining. When you drive through the stone gates and up the long, picturesque drive, passing the manicured paddocks and ornamental dams of 'Bantry' a truly romantic, upmarket family offering awaits. Highlights of this special property include:

- Five spacious bedrooms; 4.5 beautifully renovated bathrooms in total (main home has four bedrooms)
- A luxurious master suite offers a private ensuite and dressing room with garden views
- Underfloor heating, open fire plus slow combustion fire, air-conditioning
- Several sets of French doors with garden views
- Flexible floor plan; various large living spaces
- Enchanting entertainer's country kitchen; dual oven, Falcon range, walk-in pantry
- Attached 3-car garage
- 3 dams, fenced paddocks
- Rear laneway access to the property and into paddocks
- Stables complex is beautifully presented: tack room, day yards, hot and cold wash bays

Such a mesmerising first impression of country perfection is rare, especially a first impression that will never recede. 'Bantry' is a heart-stealer that must be inspected to be truly appreciated.
