This is where we gather to sing and relax on weekends. Now my friend has to move to a smaller house to accommodate his health. Those of you who need or are looking for a big, solid house in Greenacre should not miss this opportunity. Please take a look at some brief information about the house as follows: Charming family home - Where sophistication meets luxury! This beautiful two-storey double brick house is located on a 556 square meter lot. Not only because of the solid design, the interior and exterior are both majestic, exuding sophistication and charm in a classic style. This is the strong point of this house. When entering, you will be greeted by a spacious and bright interior with ample space suitable for when you need to organize large gatherings with family, friends, couples or simply enjoy your time. Enjoy quiet evenings in the garden. This is a prime location for families looking for convenience in life, with easy access to area amenities such as schools, parks and transportation. With such a spacious and well-built, the house has enough potential to become an ideal home for those with foresight, whether for living or investing.
