FOR SALE

Professional yoga studio, the ultimate man cave or online business headquarters. All of these scenarios are possible here where the only limiting factor is your imagination. The ground level of this modern home is cleverly designed with three bedrooms, separate lounge and dining areas and a covered patio area with yard for pets and kids. The master bedroom is ensuited and the main bathroom is modern and spacious. However this easy care home completely contained on one level is only half the story. Venture upstairs and the true nature of this impressive and unique property is revealed. The entire floor plan of the second level has been designed to an open form. From front to back, no walls break the flow of the most versatile space you will see in a residential home. Currently used as a gallery/museum with bespoke storage lighting and audio, a snooker and games zone and a home cinema hidden behind electric curtains. This expansive and versatile space is whatever your imagination can conjure it to be.

CONCEPTS FOR THE UPPER LEVEL-

- An art gallery with studio space at one end with a creative zone at the other.
- Yoga studio with room for sauna, spa and treatment zones
- The ultimate man cave with games room, gym, boxing studio and dedicated sports entertainment lounge
- Online business hub with room for office space, logistics, content studio and product storage.
- A blank canvas to extend the home, more bedrooms and living space?

This one of a kind home offers an endless list of features and options to express your unique ideas. Reach out today to organise your private tour of the Imaginarium.
