A true hidden gem nestled within a quiet pocket of Tewanin, this stunning family home could offer the laid-back lifestyle you've been searching for. Imagine relaxing on the north-facing deck as you host guests in absolute style or cooling off in the sparkling in-ground pool enveloped by lush greenery, this truly is idyllic living at its finest. The spacious layout spans two levels and boasts five bedrooms, three bathrooms and multiple light-filled living areas. Polished timber floors flow underfoot in the sitting room, dining area and sleek gourmet kitchen with direct access out to the covered front porch and poolside deck making entertaining a breeze. A separate living room is also on this level alongside two bedrooms, one bathroom and a well-equipped laundry. Your oversized family room, with an attached balcony, awaits upstairs with three more bedrooms and two bathrooms including your sumptuous master suite with a walk-in robe, ensuite and direct access to the outdoors. Air-conditioning throughout ensures year-round comfort plus there's an attached double garage, a solar panel system, a laundry room and off-street parking for a caravan or boat. All this is set on a peaceful and private battle-axe block with easy access to a host of must-have amenities. Tewanin Primary School and local bus stops are only moments away and you're conveniently located close to bustling shops and the vibrant centre of Tewanin.
