Perfectly positioned, this bright and secure two bedroom art deco apartment is the charm of its era with all the comforts of today. This sensational ground floor brick property is situated in a quiet street in a boutique block of only four set in a traditional garden setting. Comprises: intercom entry, entrance hall leading to a well proportioned living/dining room with open fire place and polished floorboards, two bedrooms (master bedroom with large built in robes), bathroom with shower over bath, large fully equipped kitchen including a gas oven/cooktop, and ample storage. This property is further complimented by Art Deco features ie: high ceilings, original polished floor boards, gas heating and not to mention a delightful rear communal garden and shared laundry room. All this close to the Botanical Gardens, a short stroll to the delights & facilities of Acland St, and meters to Carlisle St's & Brighton Rd's trams, & St Kilda beaches to relax and enjoy summer.
