Above a local business, with secure rear laneway access, minutes from trams, shops, cafes and restaurants - this renovated apartment is peak Fitzroy. The street facing space has been cleverly converted into a modern kitchen/living/dining area. Electric cooking and good storage is paired with natural light and eastern views of the suburb and the street below. Three bedrooms of varying size all have wardrobes, and nice light. They are serviced by a near new bathroom with large walk in shower. Laundry taps in the bathroom, a separate toilet, split system AC in the larger bedroom and the lounge, and a configuration that offers options to share with friends or have space to work from home - it's not one to miss. This property includes gas and water utilities.
