Set within a short stroll of the lively cafes, dining and shopping options of Highett Village, this architecturally crafted boutique residence redefines lock-and-leave luxury with its chic designer style, unparalleled quality and excellent indoor-outdoor proportions. Tailored for downsizers seeking ease and security, young families relishing a low-maintenance lifestyle, and investors looking for an unbeatable setting with turnkey entry, this securely accessed apartment holds broad appeal. From the European oak floors and abundant storage to the highlights of stone and soft sheer blinds throughout, every corner exudes sophistication. A storage-rich entry hall introduces the private and peaceful single-level floor plan, seamlessly integrating its open-plan living and dining areas with a stunning Bosch-appointed kitchen – utilising stone benches and a perfect orientation for entertaining both inside and out. A generous undercover balcony terrace almost doubles the internal living spaces, delivering an idyllic place to relax or entertain whilst taking in the serene, leafy aspects. Privately placed at the opposite end of the home, three robed bedrooms are accompanied by two luxurious bathrooms, including the main ensuite with a dual vanity. Enviably situated within the Sandringham College zone and a stroll to Highett Station, High Street shops, and parks, this exclusive residence includes secure lift access, video intercom, large laundry, basement parking for two, storage cage, double glazing and split system air-conditioning.
