Enjoy stunning views of the city skyline while watching the magical sunsets in your private and luscious garden oasis in the heart of Carnegie! This peaceful and serene first floor apartment is filled with natural light via the double-glazed floor to ceiling windows. It has two generous sized separate bedrooms with full length mirrored robes, two large sized tiled bathrooms, each with heat lamps for winter mornings, double showers and ample storage space behind extensive wall length mirrors. The open plan living and dining area has light toned timber flooring, split system heating and cooling (also in the master bedroom), LED downlights in high ceilings, roller blinds and an European style laundry. The kitchen includes a large stone marble looking benchtop, a quality stainless steel oven and induction cooktop, a brand-new full-sized dishwasher, soft close cabinetry and additional power points necessary for all your culinary delights.

Outside you have an extra-large, private fenced courtyard, covered with shade cloth and the balcony above to enjoy sunny afternoons. Artificial turf enhances the spacious feel of the courtyard, in addition to the elevated garden bed with real grass, a connected hose (accessible by solid steps), a blossoming jasmine scented hedge, two floodlights, a solar light and external power points. Surrounded by quiet neighbours with an office courtyard to one side, you'll never want to leave your tranquil piece of paradise! Additionally, you have two secure car spaces (one with storage cage and one with additional corner space), video intercom for secure entry and lift access, rooftop BBQ and garden area, shared bike storage, and multiple transport options - all just a short walk to Carnegie Central and Koornang Road restaurants and cafes.
