Oriented to soak in all day rays, this elevated, boutique apartment promotes quiet comfort and ease seconds from the quaint shops, thriving eateries, and first rate coffee of iconic Bridge Road. A low maintenance prospect ideal as a first home, inner city base, or set and forget investment, a smart yet simple interior sees brilliant passive light enrich an open living/dining space, while stone benches and stainless steel appliances adorn a sleek kitchen. A sizeable bedroom is accompanied by built in robes and a modern ensuite with rain shower over bath, while other highlights to the home include heating, laundry facilities, intercom/security access, a car space, and zoning for Richmond West Primary, Richmond High, and Melbourne Girls' College. Perfectly placed for indulging in the buzz of central Richmond, it's within metres of various bars and pubs, Richmond Traders shopping, Gleadell Street Market, and the MCG precinct, while trams and trains promise rapid access to ever fashionable Chapel Street and the bustling city centre.
