Nestled within the prestigious Oros apartment enclave, this opulent two-bedroom residence embodies the pinnacle of luxurious living. With a seamless blend of indoor-outdoor spaces and enchanting garden vistas, this home offers an unparalleled living experience, complete with access to a host of 5-star amenities. The residence overlooks beautifully landscaped communal grounds, combining sophistication and practicality for both discerning investors and astute owner-occupiers. Step inside to an interior exuding refined elegance. The white kitchen, equipped with top-tier Smeg appliances and a spacious Butler's pantry, sets the stage for culinary excellence. The striking dual-vanity bathroom features a walk-in shower and is adorned with luxurious finishes, including stone benchtops, airy oak flooring, and sumptuous roof-hung automated curtains. Climate control is effortlessly managed with reverse-cycle air conditioning, while security is enhanced by video-intercom entry and secure basement parking with designated storage space. The lifestyle offerings within the complex are nothing short of extraordinary. Residents can enjoy recreational amenities such as a bocce field, gym, and heated indoor pool. Wellness facilities, including a yoga studio and rooftop garden with an outdoor cinema, cater to holistic living. The convenience is further elevated by on-site dining options, a café, laundry services, a supermarket, and a welcoming reception lobby, ensuring all needs are met without leaving the enclave. Located within walking distance of Chadstone's premier shopping precinct and dining establishments, this residence also boasts proximity to Caloola Reserve and Oakleigh's vibrant restaurant scene. Public transportation options provide a stress-free commute to Melbourne's CBD in under 30 minutes, with Monash University easily accessible via a short 10-minute bus ride. Whether you are seeking an upscale lifestyle or a savvy investment opportunity, this residence is designed to exceed expectations.
