Chic and Spacious Living at Iconic Denton Mills Complex

The inspired conversion of Denton Mills has provided a superb residential address for unique, warehouse living. The style and spaciousness of this light-filled apartment with a large, private courtyard provides ample room for relaxed living. A beautifully bright living and dining area is complemented by reverse-cycle heating and cooling, two large double sash windows, timber floors and high ceilings, all combining to create a warm and inviting atmosphere. A study nook off the lounge room provides a handy, dedicated space. The open-plan kitchen is equipped with stone benches, gas cooktop, dishwasher, moveable island bench and plenty of storage space along the hallway. The large bedroom offers a built-in robe, heating and was recently re-carpeted. A light and stylishly appointed bathroom feature a concealed European-style laundry for convenience. Video security intercom has been installed and lift-access, secure car space in the underground carpark comes with a lockable storage cage. This property combines character and quality, situated in a tree-lined street with corner cafés and easy access to Victoria Street, Abbotsford Convent Arts precinct and Smith Street Collingwood restaurants. City-bound trains and trams are mere steps from your door. Envious, inner-city living at its finest.
