Smart, modern, and conveniently located, 'Fresh Apartments' were quality built and have been meticulously maintained over the years. This popular elevated complex offers a secure lifestyle investment to either rent out or live in now. Immaculately presented, this spacious residence presents a timely opportunity to acquire a modern-day haven enhanced by indoor-outdoor living to complement the Queensland climate. Dual alfresco zones at the front and rear create excellent cross ventilation and are perfect to relax and unwind after a long day. These outdoor areas add an additional dimension of space to enjoy, ideal for year-round alfresco entertaining. The modern kitchen will delight and offers quality stainless-steel appliances, sleek stone benchtops, ample storage, and a convenient island breakfast bar that creates a central hub to gather or sit for casual dining. Accommodation comprises one generously sized bedroom with built-in robe that is serviced by a two-way bathroom. Other notable features include ducted air conditioning and ceiling fans, insect screens, security access gate with intercom system, and garage parking for one vehicle. The complex boasts a sparkling in-ground pool, gym, and communal barbeque area, which only adds to the overall appeal. Your new home is situated in such a convenient location. You are literally moments to Toowong Village as well as Indooroopilly Shopping Centre, surrounded by multiple transport options, and UQ is within easy access to walk, drive, or ride. This complex is unbelievably quiet, and you will forget just how close you are to the hustle and bustle of the city. This apartment is a sound investment in this thriving suburb or the perfect first home. Inspect today - this will not last long!
