Updated, light filled and ready to enjoy, this little gem in prestige Drummond Street will impress with its modern interior and lockup and leave configuration. Quiet and private on the first floor it's cosy floorplan is open plan and illuminated with large North facing windows. Crisp white paint and beautiful new flooring combine with the modern kitchen with newly fitted oven, decent cupboard space and electric cooktop. The bedroom will accommodate a sizeable bed and has large windows with leafy views, built in cupboard space and adjoins the crisp white bathroom. Other features include engineered timber floors, NBN connectivity, dual system roller blinds and designated off street car parking space. Sitting in one of Carlton North's finest streets, take a leisurely stroll around the neighbourhood and enjoy the intact period architecture and leafy streetscapes. Delightful access is offered to a host of lifestyle enjoyments including Princes Park or the Capital City Trail for your daily exercise. The Rathdowne Street Village caters for your hospitality needs, whilst Barkly Square shopping centre will keep you well supplied. Head to Lygon Street and the Number 6 tram will whisk you into South Carlton or into the CBD and Melbourne Uni in a matter of minutes.
