The mid-century origins of Johann Court are now certain to be appreciated in any era. Similarly, the location of this boutique building is guaranteed to be universally admired. Such a combination of style and setting complements this bright one bedroom apartment, ensuring its appeal from entry level or investment points of view! First floor spaces with a balcony retreat include a living/dining area served by an impressively updated kitchen while the double bedroom's character and comfort are matched by the modern style of its bathroom. Walk to Chapel Street, Toorak Road, South Yarra station, Toorak Village and Hawksburn - they're all within the sphere of this engaging, enticing address!
