If you love an outdoors entertaining lifestyle you'll feel completely at home in this stylish and spacious one bedroom garden home that boasts modern interiors and premium finishes. Designed by multi-award winning Sydney architectural firm Fox Johnson this strongly sought after architecturally designed development within Sans Souci and Ramsgate's beachfront localities provides the perfect setting for quality and convenient living. With kilometres of pristine beaches only a minutes' walk away from your door step it's hard to imagine a more beautiful area to call home. Combining the very best between a work and highly convenient lifestyle with an easy CBD commute for the working professional and shops, supermarkets, local beaches and parks all within a very short walking proximity. The use of stone and marble enhances quality and luxury with stainless steel gas appliances and dishwasher. Other features include but are not limited to an ultra modern oversized bathroom with an internal laundry, ducted air-conditioning, a spacious bedroom opening to private courtyard area with floor to ceiling built-in wardrobes, secure underground parking with separate storage space available, private and relaxing outdoor entertaining areas, a swimming pool also as part of the complex for all to enjoy after a swim at the beach. Incorporating modern open plan living areas accommodating the desired needs of indoor/outdoor entertaining through a private outdoor area this one bedroom garden home of stylish living and convenience will be snapped up in no time due to it's ideal position surrounded by cafes and restaurants, shops, local supermarkets, schools, parks and sporting venues just 20km from the heart of Sydney CBD for an easy day to day working commute. Indulge in the sea's breeze embracing your very own resort style paradise in this very rare offering securing your very best and most deserved summer months or seaside experience all year round.
