Vibrant harbourside living takes a smart and stylish turn in this top floor apartment that's so enticing with its look, light and location with parklands around Rozelle Bay close at the end of the street. Situated within a boutique security building, it offers a private and bright retreat with freshly appointed interiors, good proportions and leafy outlooks over the area. This great low-maintenance property is also within an easy stroll to the light rail, village cafes, bus transport and wine bars that make Glebe such a popular place to live. Elevated position that captures district glimpses to the Anzac Bridge. A bright and airy open design with generous lounge and dining areas. Two private balconies both enjoy outlooks over the neighbourhood. The good-sized bedrooms are both fitted with generous built-in robes. A smart modern kitchen plus a well-lit bathroom with full bathtub. Security car space plus storage, internal laundry and intercom entry. Easy access to the new fish markets and all the action in Glebe.
