A one bedroom plus study apartment of superior style and substantial size, this light-filled property offers next level appeal for entry level buyers and provides investors with the attraction of rewarding, reliable returns. It's an outstanding opportunity from either angle! Northern light from a sophisticated balcony fills a superb living/dining that's accompanied by split system heating/cooling and a generous, impressively appointed open-plan kitchen. The double bedroom's exceptional character and comfort, complemented by built-in robes, is further enhanced by a beautifully renovated, fully tiled bathroom and the dedicated study/work from home zone. Secure, spacious and distinguished by the convenience of off street parking for two cars, this desirable address puts Yarraville village within walking distance and parks and city access just moments away.
