Fall In Love With The Courtyard, Renovation & Location...

Set to the rear of this well cared for retro era block, is this hip pad which boasts about its cutting-edge renovation, full width courtyard garden and standout private corner position with its own entrance.

Cool polished concrete floors also complement the open plan living area that favorably leads outdoors, while the creative and well planned kitchen allows the entertainer to connect with guests if you decide to dine in or out. A naturally light filled bathroom lets you wind down in your own bath tub and the mirrored robe is large enough to store loads of shoes and clothes for the most fashion conscious. Other important features include: Your own laundry facilities, security intercom entrance and secure car park.

Perfectly located right on the doorstep to an array of great cafes, restaurants and the Number 86 Tram in cosmopolitan Thornbury, this apartment is sure to excite those who are seeking inner city convenience with a bit of personality and charm.

One Look Is All You'll Need...
