Welcome to a home that's sure to bring good vibes every day! This renovated ground-floor apartment is full of personality and style, and perfect for modern living. It's easy to picture yourself relaxing and entertaining in the spacious living and dining room with a feature wall adding a touch of character. Step outside to access a private patio, surrounded by greenery and a lovely grassed area. The sleek kitchen is appointed with stone benchtops, gas cooktop, oven, and dishwasher. A retractable sliding door cleverly separates the living zone from the two bedrooms, both with built-in robes. One bedroom is also fitted with extra shelving, a pull-down desk, and ingenious hidden storage reachable from lift-up doors behind the bed. The bathroom is a real standout, with eye-catching mosaic tiles and a large shower featuring both a rain shower head and a hand-held option. Additional highlights include a split-system air conditioner, floorboards, European laundry, car space, and secure intercom entry. While enjoying the serene tranquillity inside, you'll find an abundance of lifestyle amenities just outside your door. Moments away are the beach, jogging, walking, and cycling trails, city transport, and the buzz of Acland and Fitzroy Streets. It's hard to believe you can find such a quiet bayside haven so close to everything, making fast action a must to make it yours.
