North-Facing Garden Residence In Kew Bondi, A Celebration Of Light, Life And Coastal Luxury. 241sqm Indoor / Outdoor Living 277sqm On Title

Garden apartments on the doorstep of Sydney's best-loved beach are incredibly rare and this luxurious house-like residence is one of only two in the highly acclaimed Kew Bondi that are ahead of the curve. Designed by award-winning architects PBD to foster a sense of place, Kew Residences are right in the heart of South Bondi village where artisan bakeries and celebrated restaurants sit alongside alfresco cafes and surf stores. Secluded from the street and facing due north, this three-bedroom apartment has been conceived as a luxurious private haven with a landscaped garden as a seamless extension of its sunlit interiors. A robust yet refined palette of oak, marble and glass sets a mood of understated luxury while Italian appliances, custom hand-painted joinery and Brodware tapware are the finishing touches that elevate the interiors through the balance of materiality. With 241sqm of indoor/outdoor living space plus double garaging, this is no ordinary apartment but a finely crafted machine for beachside living that sets a new benchmark for design in South Bondi. Just up from the sand and surf, this is a place for locals to enjoy the very best of beachside living inspired by nature and crafted by experts.
