Sundrenched Chic in the Kings Domain

Recently renovated and exclusively situated in one of South Yarra's most iconic, Kings Domain streets, this charming and light-filled single bedroom apartment enjoys an unparalleled lifestyle offering within easy walking distance of Gilson, the Botanical Hotel, the Tan and the Yarra River. Rich in early 1960s chic and brimming with glorious northern light, the apartment is certain to exceed expectations in one of urban Melbourne's most prestigious locations.

A black-and-white tiled entrance announces a bold design ethic within this lavish apartment where a north-facing living room is easily connected to both a sunny and secure first-floor terrace as well as a pristine, contemporary kitchen / meals where stone benches are complemented by stainless steel oven / cooktop. The bedroom has been completed with built-in robes, a walk-in cupboard and a bright ensuite with a walk-in shower and laundry facilities, plus there is ample residents' parking not on title and bike storage.

Discover the joy of this blue-ribbon location where glorious park access is blended with the supreme urban convenience of the area's sophisticated cafes, dining options and bars, plus you have easy access to city-bound trams along St Kilda Road and trains from the soon to be opened ANZAC Railway station.
