A perfect inner city performance

This pristinely presented ground floor apartment in a central location offers a secure and light filled orientation, situated within the historically significant 'Glen Eagles' Art Deco development (circa 1930) with Melbourne's finest amenities and lifestyle attractions at the doorstep. A surprisingly quiet and restful abode, the home benefits from leafy surrounds with ample space to enjoy the sunshine and relax. Thoughtfully zoned, generous living and dining feature timber floorboards and high ceilings and are separate to a well equipped kitchen featuring quality stainless steel appliances. The bright and spacious bedroom is equipped with mirrored built in robes, plus a pristine central bathroom with shower over bath. A secure car space for parking and laundry facilities complete this home. Attractive for first home buyers and investors alike, this vibrant location provides is close to tram transport along St Kilda Road, across the road from the lush surrounds and trails of Albert Park Lake and Fawkner Park, and in close walking proximity to Chapel Street shopping precinct.
