A truly stunning 2 bedroom apartment showcasing magical city views. Prominently positioned in a coveted corner setting on the 27th floor of the Collins Tower building, you could not wish for a more central city address. Explore laneway bars and cafes, and take advantage of a wide range of nearby shopping choices from Spencer Outlet Centre to the Emporium and South Wharf all accessible via the tram right on your doorstep. Maximising far-reaching space and accentuating natural light from every angle, discover roomy open-plan living and dining framed by impressive panels of floor-to-ceiling glass. Head outside to a private balcony offering panoramic views of the striking city and Southbank skyline providing an elegant backdrop for entertaining. A stunning kitchen with plenty of bench space, quality appliances and smart storage is perfectly functional and modern, whilst the bathroom features floor to ceiling tiles and European style laundry. Both bedrooms feature built in robes. Bonus features include ducted heating and cooling, secure, undercover car space on title and security intercom. Don't miss out! Register the inspection online.
