Leafy surrounds, shared gardens and a wonderful sense of community create an idyllic setting for this beautifully presented two bedroom apartment set in an immaculately maintained mid-century complex. Featuring hardwood floors and huge windows in an L-shaped living and dining that opens to a balcony overlooking the green, there is a bright and airy serenity to this space that is large enough to accommodate a study nook and is complemented by a light-filled kitchen with stainless steel appliances. Huge bedrooms with robes share a pristine central bathroom, and class continues with heating/cooling, generous storage and a car space on title. In a quiet tree-lined avenue at the heart of a locale that puts local shopping, cafes and trams at the end of the street, enjoys easy access to the Balwyn Cinema, Kew and Camberwell junction shopping precincts, and is surrounded by elite schools, parks and the Anniversary Trail, it presents astute owner occupiers or investors first-class entry to one of the city's tightest held suburbs.
