A Garden Hideaway In A Leafy Cul-De-Sac Enclave

Leafy greenery all around underscores a sense of peace and privacy in this secure apartment and brings a tranquil botanical feel to the interiors. Quietly set away from the street in the upgraded San Remo building, the one-bedroom apartment is set amid established garden in a family friendly community enclave tucked away behind Frenchmans Road village. Clean lines, freshly schemed interiors and a great layout make this a perfect home for the professional buyer or investor in a connected pocket of the east within easy reach of the sheltered waters of Clovelly Beach and the surf action at Coogee. Featuring a secure undercover lock up garage, the second floor apartment benefits from secure lift access with a sunny common pool making weekends a dream.
