Ideally located in a prime location for convenience, this welcoming two-bedroom apartment suits home owners and investors alike. It features a bright and well presented floorplan with plenty of space to live, while flowing outdoors to a quiet balcony capturing leafy outlooks. Lock-up-and-leave appeal here is a key factor here with the Kensington Light Rail, cafes, shops, University of New South Wales and Centennial Parklands being just a few of the highlights within walking distance. Also close by is Royal Randwick Racecourse, Kensington Public School and top golf courses. Spacious lounge room connects easily outside. Well sized balcony overlooks green streetscape. Tidy kitchen with ample cabinetry and room for casual dining. Two bright and comfortable bedrooms. Full bathroom features separate tub and shower. Internal laundry and intercom entry. Superb investment close to the hospital and university. Lock-up garage also offers room for storage. Minutes from beautiful eastern beaches and coastal walks. Close to East Village shops and The SupaCenta. Disclaimer: All information contained herein is gathered from sources we believe reliable.
