Inner city living at its finest.

Reach for unrivalled success with the outdoor spaces and size of this impressive ground floor apartment, featuring its own secured courtyards and a prized lifestyle location in Melbourne's inner north.

Beautifully presented and in immaculate condition, its within walking distance to nearby amenities, High Street shops, cafes and Penders Park directly across the street. With an airy light filled ambiance, the layout features an open plan kitchen, meals and living zone. The elegant kitchen showcases outstanding storage along with functional appliances and dishwasher. The main bedroom with an ensuite includes built in robes and a second private courtyard. Added highlights also include floating timber floors, laundry facilities, heating, security intercom and a car space on title.
