If life is for the living, then there can be nothing better than having every creature comfort right on your doorstep – and that is certainly the case at this sleek lock & leave apartment. Making the most of its bustling locale, the home is the very essence of low maintenance living, so whether you are returning from work or living a cosmopolitan retirement, this is the place for you. Set within an ultra-cool development, the home boasts super-stylish interiors. Featuring on-trend oak wide-board floors that flow through the generous living and dining zone, the accommodation offers a quality Bosch-equipped and stone-topped kitchen that has been fitted with arresting brass tapware – a feature which also stars in the smartly finished bathroom. Added extras include split system heating/cooling units in both bedrooms and the living room, Euro laundry, video intercom, secure car space and storage cage. A huge bonus is the private north facing balcony flooded with natural light and enjoys area views, perfect to entertain and relax with friends. Commuting is easy and the lifestyle is effortless thanks to transport, shops and eateries all within steps.
