Guide On Request

Revel in the sunshine and sea breezes from your third-floor haven in this light-filled two-bedroom, two-bathroom Lee Wharf apartment. With dazzling harbour and city views, and a wider-than-average layout, you're in for a brilliant waterfront lifestyle in the middle of Newcastle's lively harbourside precinct. The whole place is bathed in dynamic views stretching from the Stockton Bridge to the city skyline. You'll never tire of watching ships and yachts sailing into port or spotting dolphins playing in the harbour. As night falls, the city lights up, showcasing the bold Crystalbrook Hotel, the charming Town Hall Clock Tower, and the modern new Newcastle University campus, with vibrant murals adding a splash of colour along the way. You could spend hours soaking in the sights and sounds from your alfresco terrace or through the large picture windows in every main room. Though this apartment includes secure parking, you can ditch the car and explore everything on foot. From iconic surf beaches to chic boutiques on Darby Street, tasty dining spots, and weekend fun at Honeysuckle, The Station, or Civic Square, everything's just a leisurely stroll away. - Third floor Lee Wharf apartment with secure entry, lift access, single car space - Bright open plan design connects seamlessly to a terrace with harbour and city views - Island kitchen featuring Smeg electric hob, under bench oven, dishwasher - Ducted air-conditioning keeps things comfortable - Two spacious bedrooms with mirrored robes and city views, main with ensuite - Main bathroom with shower over bathtub, in-wall w/c, face-level storage - On the doorstep access to Honeysuckle Boardwalk, Honeysuckle Park, Newcastle University, 1200m to Newcastle Interchange for trains to Sydney
