Located next to the iconic Boundary Street, here is a fantastic opportunity to buy a studio apartment in the ever popular 'West End Central' complex. Property features include: a private balcony; built in wardrobes with plenty of storage; a fully concealed kitchenette with bar fridge, kettle, sink and microwave; large bathroom including spa bath tub; queen size bed; air-conditioning and wall mounted flat screen television with foxtel connection. The complex has all the facilities expected with resort style pool, spa and sauna and small gymnasium, all fastidiously maintained by the onsite management team. Whether you want a hassle-free investment to add to your portfolio or a small property that you can live in, this one can't be beaten on value. Across the road from Coles, down the street from the West End Markets, a short stroll to the city and South Bank precinct and located within the State High Catchment this property really has something for everyone.
