You will love this light filled and open plan apartment offering a wonderful vista over Fremantle from its large east facing balcony opening from both the living area and bedroom. Nestled in a super convenient location and just a short stroll into central Freo, this fully furnished and equipped residence is positioned on the third floor of this quality modern complex built circa 2015. Expanding the living space is seamless outdoor access to a generously-proportioned balcony that adds additional living and entertaining space. Slide open the doors in the living room and the fabulous master-bedroom and allow the cooling breezes to flow through. The spacious bathroom includes a shower, toilet and vanity and the European style laundry includes a sink and washer/dryer combo. Designed for easy living, this apartment is low-maintenance and offers an enviable lock-up-and-leave lifestyle, situated within a secure development complete with safe underground parking facilities. Imagine living so close to Fremantle's city centre with an array of exceptional amenities within easy reach. From charming cafes and restaurants, cinemas as well as the Fremantle Leisure Centre, there's no shortage of entertainment and fitness options nearby. Additionally, the lovely Fremantle Park and shopping at the local IGA are just a stone's throw away as well as the train and bus stations. Don't miss the chance to secure this wonderful apartment in this prime Freo location with an abundance of lifestyle options on offer.
