Absolutely one of a kind, this extraordinary home in the landmark Carlton Creche building presents an amazing inner-city lifestyle. Distinctive features and profusion of natural light throughout it has instant appeal. The home's adaptable interior showcases an extra-large open plan living/dining area with towering ceilings and large windows leading out to a decked north-facing terrace ideal for relaxing alone or entertaining many. Master bedroom with plenty of storage and additional bedroom/study. Other highlights include central modern bathroom, a stone-top kitchen with stainless steel appliances, split-system heating and cooling, solid hardwood floors plus intercom/secure entrance foyer and parking space (EV charger) with remote-control gate to Kay Street. A short stroll to Carlton Baths and both Lygon Street and Nicholson Street trams, it's also close to Carlton's renowned cafes, bars, restaurants and vibrant retail precinct, as well as easy access to Carlton Gardens, hospital precincts and Melbourne University
