Conveniently located moments from Gosford Hospital, public transport and schools, this two-bedroom apartment is freshly painted and is situated in a solid complex of just eight units and has a prime top floor position. The open plan living and dining space greets you upon entry, with glass sliding doors giving access to the balcony with a pleasant, peaceful outlook. The kitchen has an electric cooktop and plenty of cupboard space, and there is also a laundry cupboard. Both bedrooms have built-in robes and the bathroom has a bath and shower with a separate toilet. The unit is carpeted throughout and parking is provided for a single car in the secure garage. This is a great opportunity to secure a low-maintenance unit in a good complex, either as a home to reside in or as a smart investment property. Email the agent for a detailed property eBook.
