Exemplifying masterful architectural design, this ground-floor apartment boasts a contemporary, upscale aesthetic. Its strategic positioning within the area is a result of meticulous selection to amplify its appeal and convenience. The apartment seamlessly integrates architectural innovation with modern luxury, offering open plan living and dining spaces graced by sleek finishes. The stylish modern kitchen takes centre stage, featuring Caesar stone bench tops and high-quality stainless-steel appliances, uniting elegance with practicality.

But that's not all. This apartment now also features a second bathroom with a convenient laundry area, adding an extra layer of functionality and comfort. The spacious courtyard enhances the apartment's charm, providing an inviting setting for gatherings and relaxation. Comprising two bedrooms, each thoughtfully furnished with robes for added convenience, the master bedroom enjoys a designer ensuite. Notable features encompass polished finishes throughout, a study nook, a linen closet, inclusive of a split system heating/cooling solution for year-round comfort, and secure basement parking.

Beyond these features, the apartment's exceptional location stands out, offering an unmatched level of lifestyle convenience. Its proximity to both the Bentleigh shopping district and the local train station ensures everyday essentials are within easy reach. Additionally, the locale provides effortless access to educational institutions, lush parklands, efficient bus networks, and a brief, picturesque drive to the beloved Brighton Beach.
