Stylish Entry To A Lifestyle Locale

Mid-century proportions give way to low-maintenance living in this two bedroom apartment privately set to the rear of a boutique block of only eight.

A rare, ground floor offering that has been brightly refreshed with a lick of paint and new carpets, this single level home boasts a spacious and well-laid floorplan. A sundrenched living room makes a smart first impression in this home were a full pantry features in a well-appointed kitchen including a Chef range and excellent storage, while two spacious bedrooms with robes share a neat central bathroom.

A split system air-conditioner, Euro laundry and a car space on title offer modern ease. All in a premier location that is enviably positioned to the fabulous bars and restaurants of High Street, near choice of transport including Thornbury Station, cosmopolitan local shopping and well-regarded schools, zoned to Wales Street Primary.
