On the lively Smith Street, this generous and light-filled one-bedroom apartment is a match made in heaven for city professionals who desire to live in this sought-after Collingwood pocket. In a building by acclaimed architect Kennedy Nolan, this sumptuous and bright apartment is destined to impress. Quality timber floors flow through the spacious living and dining zones, which are flooded with natural light. This main hub further accesses a sizeable wrap-around balcony with fantastic city views. Step back inside and enjoy the sublime kitchen, which features a luxury stone benchtop, soft-closing drawers, a trendy splashback, and full stainless steel Neff appliances, including an integrated dishwasher. The bedroom also has exceptional light and built-in robes and drawers, meanwhile the gorgeous bathroom offers a rain shower set up and handy European laundry. Also, it benefits from reverse cycle heating and cooling (including the bedroom), double-glazed floor-to-ceiling windows, excellent storage throughout, secure video intercom entry, a storage cage, and a secure undercover car space (no car stackers here!). This location is excellent, with access to all the fantastic shops and restaurants on Smith Street, Johnston Street, and Brunswick Street. You are also positioned close to Fitzroy swimming pool and recreation centre, local parks including Darling Gardens, Edinburgh Gardens, Victoria Park, primary schools, trams at your doorstep, Victoria Park Station, and the Eastern Freeway. Available on a 12 + months
