Retreat to the peace and privacy of this ultra spacious two-bedroom apartment on the top floor of a grand converted Victorian terrace in Woollahra's elite consular precinct between Queen Street village and Edgecliff train station. Enjoy a house-like feel and soaring 3m high ceilings in the sunlit 115 sqm apartment with multiple living zones, spacious dining area and open-plan kitchen. A covered iron-lace balcony and leafy district views to the city create a tranquil backdrop to the elegant interiors with north-facing windows bringing in loads of natural light, while an elevated rear setting provides a wonderful sense of seclusion. Prestigious locale close to Chiswick restaurant, Flat White café, Trumper Park tennis courts and Edgecliff shopping.

Features • Quiet rear setting, balcony, district views to city • Main double-size living area opens to balcony • Front sitting area with original working marble fireplace • Dining area seats 8 people, plantation shutters • Kitchen with Bosch stove and Bosch dishwasher • Main bedroom with b/ins, ensuite and balcony • 2nd bedroom with ceiling fan, generous storage • 2-way ensuite bathroom with underfloor heating, and powder room • Laundry facilities in the kitchen • Converted Victorian terrace, grand entry hall • Buses at door, 500m to Queen Street village • 600m to Centennial Park, 350m to Trumper Park • Walk to cafes, dining, shopping and train station
