The Harrington residences afford intimate aspects of tree-lined streets, village charm and Sydney's skyline beyond. The distinctive façade of The Harrington presents a unique design language of 'frames' drawn on the deep splayed reveals and sills of The Rocks' heritage buildings. These frames are enhanced by a series of articulated bronze and terracotta batten details.

Designed by award-winning architects fjmt, there are four distinctive stories read as seamless collection of moments, housed within an iconic address at The Rocks. Drawing cues from the dramatic texture and beauty of this heritage locale, each home has its own style and aspect, reflecting the intricate craftsmanship of the area, as well as your own individual tastes.
