Large, Bright & West-Facing

Society Apartments, an architecturally designed complex, is ideally located just metres from the vibrant restaurants, shops, and bars of Melbourne's iconic Chapel Street. This bright and elevated two-bedroom apartment is presented as new, offering a sophisticated inner-city lifestyle. The spacious kitchen features stone benches, a built-in island bench, and a concealed fridge recess, along with a dishwasher drawer and ample cupboard storage. Both bedrooms come with built-in robes, and the master includes a sun-drenched study or storage nook. The stylish bathroom boasts a walk-in shower, complemented by a European laundry. Step out onto the large balcony to enjoy sweeping city views. Additional amenities include secure basement parking, storage, and video intercom access, with an onsite building concierge service providing peace of mind.

Society Apartments also boasts exceptional communal facilities, including a stunning rooftop terrace offering uninterrupted 360-degree views of the city, Port Phillip Bay, and the Dandenong Ranges. Residents can enjoy two spas, an outdoor cinema area, BBQs, a gymnasium, a business centre, a comfortable lounge with a big screen TV, a gaming area, a communal library, and a residents' herb garden. Ideal for those seeking an inner-city lifestyle with all the perks, this property combines luxury, convenience, and community in one of Melbourne's most desirable locations.
