Presenting to the open marketplace for the first time since 2021 6/1 Cooper St, Brunswick, provides an affordable living option for those eager to secure accommodation within close proximity to public transport, medical support, parklands, sporting facilities and retailers. Secured in a gated community within the quiet locale of Brunswick, the property will endear itself to many a homemaker. Based on the first floor of the complex, the ease of transition from ground to apartment level will prove an additional determinant in the selection procedure for many a prospective applicant. Upon entry to the apartment, one will inspect the intimate setting of the home maker's kitchen with freestanding white oven, grill, cooktop combination. Beige cabinetry with ample refrigerator space embodies the décor of the apartment flowing through from the kitchen to the lounge as vision pans from right to left in the entrance to the property. Flowing from the lounge into the main bedroom, the navy blue carpets provide a distinct shade of colour to the property defined by the contrast from navy blue to beige. Within the main bedroom built in robes provide ample cabinet space. The main bedroom is defined by three separate zones which include the second bedroom and the central bathroom with laundry facilities. Be advised Water Usage is Included and the property does not contain gas services and is completely electric.
