Expressions of Interest

Immaculately presented, this private apartment bordering Como Park redefines the South Yarra living experience with its impressive north-facing aspect that grants unobstructed views above the treetops. Bright open-plan living/dining spaces are accentuated by oversized windows that seamlessly connect to a broad balcony - perfect for entertaining. A sleek kitchen featuring stone benchtops pairs effortlessly with stainless steel appliances and generous storage, leaving nothing to be desired. Two well-proportioned bedrooms, equipped with built-in robes, are discreetly located away from the living areas, ensuring tranquillity, beside the sophisticated bathroom with laundry facilities and a separate powder room. Additional perks include convenient carport parking for one, gas heating, and air conditioning, just a short walk to Toorak Village and Chapel Street's vibrant dining and retail precinct, plus direct access to Como Park and the scenic Yarra River Trails, delivering an unbeatable lifestyle opportunity in a first-class location.
