Stylish Modern Living Only Moments To High Street

Start the day at the Red Door Cafe before exploring the endless attractions on High Street as it's all just nearby to this stylish apartment that's the only one for inner-city lifestyle lovers. Ideally located on the ground floor and oriented north, this perfectly renovated home is big on appeal in a small and superbly maintained block offering natural light, modern features and a car parking space on title. A giant leap for first-home buyers and investors into a prime Northcote position with everything just a short stroll away, this smart and strategic apartment includes one oversized bedroom with built-in robes, a brilliant separate kitchen boasting stainless-steel appliances, beautifully bright living room, excellent tiled bathroom with an easy-access shower plus polished timber flooring and split-system heating and cooling. An opportunity not to be missed in terms of quality living, location and value, this outstanding low-maintenance home is impeccably presented and peaceful only a minute's walk to High Street's endless strip of restaurants, bars, cafes, shops and trams plus Northcote train station, plaza supermarkets and All Nations and Johnson Parks.
