High-End Design On The High Street, A Newly Renovated Art Deco Apartment

The newly completed transformation of this boutique Art Deco apartment channels a mood of quiet elegance with a soothing neutral palette and quality fixtures and finishes. One of 12 in a classic security block, the mid-floor apartment offers unbeatable convenience with the High Street light rail at the doorstep and Belmore Road's shopping village just around the corner. A fresh contemporary take on Art Deco style, the two-bedroom apartment features a stylish designer kitchen and a king-sized main bedroom while plentiful storage and designer lighting make for comfortable living. With direct access to Randwick's world-class health, research and education precinct, this is a perfect spot for the urbanite or investor in an area of ever-strong rental demand. Lifestyle and convenience come together in one immaculate package an easy 500m walk to The Spot's alfresco dining hub and the iconic Ritz Cinema and minutes to Coogee Beach.
