In 'Scotch Hill Court' which is a stunning garden complex, this 1 bedroom apartment is blissful Hawthorn living. Ready for those looking to buy for the first time as well as keen investors, there is nothing for you to do with this hassle-free and immaculate residence but enjoy it. A dedicated entry makes way for stylish brand new carpet in the well-sized living and meals zone, with this area also including the kitchen which has a breakfast counter perfect for meals on the go. The bedroom is light-filled and comes with walk-in robe storage, while the nearby bathroom is well-appointed and boasts laundry facilities. Also embrace a sizeable balcony, reverse cycle heating and cooling, secure video intercom entry, full height storage cage, secure car space, access to visitor parking, and a communal gym for those who like to stay fit. You can also make the most of the communal gardens on offer. This standout Scotch Hill location has you close to Glenferrie Road shops and restaurants, Fairview Park, Yarra River parklands, Capital City Trail, Swinburne University, excellent primary and secondary schools, trams, and Hawthorn, Glenferrie, and Kooyong Stations. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
