Enjoy a coveted lifestyle from this spacious two-bedroom apartment conveniently located just moments from Merthyr Village and close to Brisbane's most vibrant shopping and dining precincts. Located on the second floor of this tightly held complex, the stylish and immaculately maintained apartment has light and bright interiors and enjoys stunning views across the local area to the city skyline. The entry is large and welcoming, with plenty of storage and good separation between the two bedrooms. The master is spacious and has a walk-in robe and extra cupboard space, whilst the second bedroom has a handy study nook. The large bathroom is fully tiled and also houses the laundry facilities. Upstairs you will find a large living and dining space with stunning views from the north-east facing balcony across to Bulimba and around the leafy green locale to the city skyline beyond. The updated kitchen has great storage, plenty of bench space and soft close cupboards. Large glazing throughout captures light, breezes and the extensive urban vista. The apartment has ceiling fans and split system air-conditioning and there is secure parking for two cars and additional parking for another vehicle. This is the ultimate lifestyle location, stroll to the Merthyr Village, New Farm Park and the Brisbane River. It's close to bus stops and the city cat terminal to the CBD and a short walk to the James Street dining and shopping hub. For owner-occupiers or investors alike, this is an exciting opportunity to secure a home in one of Brisbane's most desirable locations. Do not delay an inspection.
