Bright Base for a Laidback Lifestyle

Perfectly positioned just off Glen Huntly Road, this spacious, elevated apartment delivers a low maintenance base for an ultra-convenient lifestyle. A great opportunity for young buyers to establish a foothold in the neighbourhood, this could equally be an exciting purchase for apartment investors.

Featuring a well-planned and very liveable layout, the accommodation is welcomed by a distinct entrance hall that flows through to a generous living and dining room where there is plenty of room to host loved ones and opens out to a sheltered balcony. The large kitchen is very functional while still offering plenty of potential and room to renovate and extend the footprint if desired, while the two peaceful bedrooms offer fitted wardrobes & plush carpet and share a bright bathroom/laundry. Split system heating/cooling along with an assigned carport conclude a comfortable home.

Just metres down to the tram, supermarket and cafes and within an easy walk of parklands and the station, this is the perfect commuter base which is also a quick trip to Monash University Caulfield.

We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
