Modern Style & Serenity in an Exciting Growth Location

Anticipating the opening of Waterloo Metro Quarter in the coming months, the timing is perfect to claim your place in the contemporary Lily Belle complex, located less than 300 metres away. This is an impressive apartment, wisely composed with an uplifting palette of neutral tones, and configured with two generous bedrooms including an over-sized master suite. It is set at the rear of the building, achieving genuine serenity and privacy to enjoy when relaxing solo or hosting friends, and there's abundant space on the balcony for everyone. Practice the art of stress-free living in a superb location with everything at your doorstep including shops, cafes and city transport links, while Alexandria Park is only one block away from home.
